

Bio for Kelly Wilkicki

Kelly Wilkicki, M.P.P., is a Policy Analyst in the Office of the Director, Office of In Vitro Diagnostic Device Evaluation and Safety (OIVD), Center for Devices and Radiological Health (CDRH). In December 2010, Ms. Wilkicki joined OIVD to manage the coordination of PMA documents and processes.

Prior to joining OIVD Ms. Wilkicki was a Presidential Management Fellow (PMF) in the Office of the Commissioner at the FDA from 2008 to 2010. While employed in the Office of the Commissioner, Ms. Wilkicki was instrumental in organizing and implementing the Commissioner's Fellowship Program. Also during her time as a PMF, she completed a seven month rotation to Congressional Research Services, Domestic Policy Division where she contributed to health reform legislative efforts.

Ms. Wilkicki received her Masters in Public Policy from The Johns Hopkins University in 2008, with a concentration in Health Policy. Ms. Wilkicki also received a certificate in Health Finance and Management and a certificate in Health Policy from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. She completed her undergraduate studies at Boston University where she majored in Biology, and minored in Philosophy.