

Richard J. Naples
Senior Vice President, Regulatory Affairs
Becton, Dickinson and Company (BD)

Richard Naples is Senior Vice President of Regulatory Affairs for BD, headquartered in Franklin Lakes, NJ, a world leading medical technology and diagnostics company. He has worldwide responsibilities for BD's strategic market access/compliance teams; including premarket regulatory submissions, postmarket regulatory compliance programs, public policy, and reimbursement.

Mr. Naples has over 30 years in the medical technology industry, including experience in laboratory management, as an FDA scientific reviewer, and as a corporate officer for two large medical device and diagnostics manufacturers. He is currently the co-chair of the AdvaMed Diagnostics Task Force. Mr. Naples is recognized as a key industry opinion leader, having led numerous industry-wide efforts to ensure regulatory policies that foster more timely patient access to safe and effective medical devices.

Mr. Naples has a Bachelor of Science degree in Medical Technology from Youngstown State University in Ohio. Prior to joining BD, he held positions at St. Elizabeth Hospital Medical Center, Southwest Florida Regional Blood Bank, FDA HQ Center for Biologics, Evaluation and Research (CBER), and Roche Diagnostics.
